

The Meydan Hotel / Dubai Luxury, Grand Hospitality and Privacy.

Islamic Tourism Media, Dubai

During ATM 2012, my friend Ayman Morar, G.M of Aamal Travel & Tourism / Doha, introduced me to Mr. Karim Bizid, G.M of The Meydan Hotel in Dubai, who invited me to stay few days in his Hotel.

As I was planning to travel to Ireland and have two days off in Dubai after the ATM, so I accept the invitation and took a taxi to The Meydan Hotel which is only 10 minutes far from Dubai Trade Center.

Translated from Arabic, Meydan means the Horse Racetrack, another meaning for Meydan is the meeting place, The Meydan Hotel offers a State Of Art Horsetrack, also a very luxury and well equipped ball rooms for meeting and conferences whether for Board meetings, wedding and events and served by professionals with Modern Arab grand hospitality. Grand ball room fit for 400 persons for corporate meetings and events, events also available to be held out door in the terrace facing the green Horsetrack.

285 rooms and suites of 57 SQM for the standard room, facing the Horsetrack, rooms are very well equipped with all facilities, even a T.V Screen in the bath room and Internet services.

Staff from different destination around the world have been choose very carefully to offer guests the best of services. I had a lunch at Chiba restaurant, a Chinese lady offered me the meal and later she made a special Chinese tea for me, after the lunch a Ukraine lady asked me about the meal, both ladies were smiling and welcoming me.

Spa, Business center, Roof top pool, Tennis court and Four Restaurants are available for you during your stay.

Mr. Nirmal Barua, the Assistante Outlet Manager in the Meydan Hotel informed me about the coming facilities such as the golf area and the private beach.

The Meydan Hotel offers ladies guests the possibilities to stay at the Woman's floor with best of services.

Transfers and shuttle buses are available around the clock to Dubai city and its malls.

The Meydan Hotel received many international awards, The World Travel Awards 2012 as the Middle East Leading sport's resort, and MENA Travel awards for best conference / convention Hotel, and best 5 stars Business Corporate Hotel.

